

The principle of proportionality of customs penalties is one of the basic principles of the International Convention on the Simplification and Harmonization of Customs Procedures, better known as the Revised Kyoto Convention, which dedicates to it the Standard 23 of the Specific Annex H, Chapter 1. Read the full post on our blog.