

Importance of standards harmonization for increasing intra-African trade: new post on our blog.

The technical report on “Identifying Priority Products and Value Chains for Standards Harmonisation in Africa” highlights that the volume and complexity of technical regulations and the variation in certification, testing, inspection practices and standards used by different African countries is one of the main barriers to intra-African trade.... continue

reading

